

You have no right to take away any thing from satellite radio. You are already limiting the free speech of Howard Stern while not restricting the foul mouth of Oprah Winfrey and the FCC has no right to take any of our freedoms away from us. We have a thing called the constitution in this country and everyone should abide by the rules set upon it. The FCC is not following the first ammendment right set by the constitution to allow us the freedom of speech.